FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. Petitioner has received Kinship Care for two grandchildren. The mothers of the two children are petitioner's daughters R.H. and D.S.
3. An annual reassessment was done in January, 2013. Petitioner reported that neither parent had a history with child protective services, drug/alcohol issues, nor diagnosed mental health issues. R.H. is petitioner's personal care worker, providing care to petitioner five days per week. Petitioner reported that both daughters have unstable living situations and do not want to take the time to care for their children.

4. By a notice dated February 15, 2013, the agency informed petitioner that Kinship Care was denied because the children do not come within the criteria for a need for protection or services.

DISCUSSION

The Kinship Care benefit is a public assistance payment of $215 per month per child paid to a qualified relative who bears no legal responsibility to support the child. In Wisconsin, this benefit replaced the former Non-Legally Responsible Relative (NLRR) AFDC payment. To be eligible for the payments thereunder, the relative must meet all of the conditions set forth in Wis. Stat. §§48.57(3m)(am)(1-5) or 48.57(3n)(am)(1-6).

For Kinship Care cases in which the relative is not a guardian appointed under Wis. Stat., §48.977, the conditions listed in Wis. Stat., §48.57(3m)(am) must be met. The pertinent “conditions specified in par. (am)” here are as follows:

1. The kinship care relative applies to the county department or department for payments under this subsection and the county department or department determines that there is a need for the child to be placed with the kinship care relative and that the placement with the kinship care relative is in the best interest of the child.
2. The county department or department determines that the child meets one or more of the criteria specified in s.48.13 or 938.13 or that the child would be at risk of meeting one or more of those criteria if the child were to remain in his or her home.

Id., (3m)(am)1, 2. In Decision No. KIN-40/51985, dated May 22, 2002, the Department’s deputy secretary concluded that even if there was an apparent need for the placement, there still must be evidence that there is a risk to the child cited in Wis. Stat., §48.13 if the child were to live with a parent. Essentially that decision ties together the first two conditions cited in Wis. Stat., §48.57(3m)(am), that there be a need for the placement and that the child be at risk of harm that could lead to a CHIPS case.

The primary criteria under §§48.13 and 938.13 at issue in Kinship Care cases are that the child needs protection because he has no parent or his parents have abandoned him, he has been a victim of abuse or is at risk of abuse, or the parents refuse to or are unable to provide necessary care, food, clothing, or shelter for reasons other than poverty. Other criteria under those sections are that the child has not been immunized, the parent is not seeking medical care for the child, the child is habitually truant while in the parent’s custody, or the child has committed a specified delinquent act while in the parent’s custody.

While petitioner has been a devoted caretaker of these two grandchildren, I must agree with the agency that they do not meet the required criteria. R.H. absolutely does not need someone to care for her child. She is employed and is a caretaker of a disabled person. It is true that R.H. does not have a stable living situation, but lack of money is not an allowable criterion to be eligible. The desire to live a partying lifestyle is not an allowable criterion either. D.S. is a little tougher because petitioner believes she has possible bipolar mental issues, but being bipolar alone does not mean that she is incapable of caring for a child. The evidence before me is that the mothers simply have more important things, in their minds, than caring for their children. Petitioner’s care for the children allows the mothers to follow their lifestyle choices, and that is not a basis for Kinship eligibility.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Petitioner is ineligible for Kinship Care because the children do not come under the §48.13 protection criteria.

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED

That the petition for review herein be and the same is hereby dismissed.
