FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Brown County.
2. On October 31, 2012, petitioner applied for MA for elderly, blind, and disabled ("EBD") based on a claim of disability.

3. The Department granted presumptive benefits pending a determination of disability by the Disability Determination Bureau (“DDB”).
4. On March 26, 2013, the DDB determined that petitioner is not disabled.
5. On April 1, 2013 the Department sent notice terminating presumptive benefits effective 5/1/12.
6. Petitioner filed a timely appeal.

DISCUSSION

Persons between 18 and 65 who are not pregnant and have no children under 19 living with them are generally ineligible for regular medical assistance benefits unless they are disabled. Wis. Stat. §§ 49.46(1) and 49.47(4). However, those requiring emergency medical services can be found presumptively disabled, which entitles them to full medical assistance benefits. Wis. Adm. Code § DHS 103.03(1)(e). If the Disability Determination Bureau rules that a person found presumptively disabled is not in fact disabled, medical assistance benefits end after proper notice and should not continue while the matter is being appealed. Medicaid Eligibility Handbook, § 5.9.6.3.

The county agency found the petitioner presumptively disabled and approved him for medical assistance. However, on March 26, 2013, the Disability Determination Bureau found that he was not disabled. The Department ended his presumptive benefits on May 1, 2013. Petitioner’s argument was only that he is, in fact, disabled. Petitioner did not allege any other error by the Department other than that his disability means she should get MA. But, the Department, under the rules, was required to terminate benefits after the DDB finding.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Department did not err in terminating presumptive MA benefits after the DDB finding of no disability.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That this appeal is dismissed.
