ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE:

John P. Tedesco
Division of Hearings and Appeals

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. On June 24, 2013, petitioner filed a form requesting a fair hearing for a child care overpayment case.

3. On July 15, 2011 the Department issued a tax intercept notice to petitioner indicating that she was liable for a $9,699.28 overpayment that would be intercepted from tax refunds.
4. On November 23, 2011, the Division of Hearings and Appeals held a hearing based on a request by petitioner to review the aforementioned tax intercept.
5. The ALJ issued his decision on December 6, 2011 disposing of the case and requiring the Department to reduce the liability to $8,400.68.

DISCUSSION

Petitioner explained at the hearing that she wanted to reopen her case because she does not think she should owe $8400. The ALJ decided in 2011 that she did. If petitioner disagreed with this decision, her recourse was to file a request for rehearing or petitioner for a review by the circuit court. Both of the deadlines for such actions passed in early 2012. There is no negative agency action that can form the basis of an appeal today with regard to this matter.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

There is no issue for determination by the Division of Hearings and Appeals.

THEREFORE, it is

That this appeal is dismissed.

REQUEST FOR A REHEARING

This is a final administrative decision. If you think this decision is based on a serious mistake in the facts or the law, you may request a rehearing. You may also ask for a rehearing if you have found new evidence which would change the decision. Your request must explain what mistake the Administrative Law Judge made and why it is important or you must describe your new evidence and tell why you did not have it at your first hearing. If you do not explain these things, your request will have to be denied.

To ask for a rehearing, send a written request to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, P.O. Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875. Send a copy of your request to the other people named in this decision as "PARTIES IN INTEREST." Your request for a rehearing must be received no later than 20 days after the date of the decision. Late requests cannot be granted.

The process for asking for a rehearing is in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. A copy of the statutes can be found at your local library or courthouse.

APPEAL TO COURT

You may also appeal this decision to Circuit Court in the county where you live. Appeals must be served and filed with the appropriate court no more than 30 days after the date of this hearing decision (or 30 days after a denial of rehearing, if you ask for one).

For purposes of appeal to circuit court, the Respondent in this matter is the Department of Children and Families. After filing the appeal with the appropriate court, it must be served on the Secretary of that Department, either personally or by certified mail. The address of the Department is: 201 East Washington Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin 53703. A copy should also be sent to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, 5005 University Avenue, Suite 201, Madison, WI 53705-5400.

The appeal must also be served on the other "PARTIES IN INTEREST" named in this decision. The process for appeals to the Circuit Court is in Wis. Stat. §§ 227.52 and 227.53.
