FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. The petitioner is an ongoing recipient of EBD MA benefits. Her case was due for a periodic review in September - October 2013, which she completed. On September 23, 2013, the Department issued written notice to the petitioner advising that her six-month deductible for the 11/1/13 - 4/30/14 period would be $7,927.98. This deductible was calculated based on undisputed monthly income of $713 from Social Security and $1,220 from the Veteran's Administration.

3. The petitioner filed a Medicare Summary statement with the Department, which it did not accept has documentation of the petitioner's medical bills to be applied against the deductible. The petitioner also sent in a bill from St. Joseph's Hospital on December 10, 2013. At that time, the agency treated the deductible as being satisfied, and the petitioner has now been certified as eligible for MA from November 1, 2013 through April 30, 2014.

DISCUSSION

Medical Assistance (MA) is a state-federal program designed to pay for medical coverage for low income persons. To qualify for MA, a person must be both nonfinancially and financially eligible. There is no dispute that the petitioner is nonfinancially eligible (e.g., disabled). To be financially eligible, a person must have assets that are under the program's asset limit, and income that is under the appropriate income limit. Where, as it appeared here, the recipient's income is over the income limit, an MA deductible must be satisfied before MA eligibility begins. Wis. Stat. §49.47(4)(c); Wis. Admin. Code § DHS 103.08(2); MA Eligibility Handbook (MEH), Appendix 24.1, at <http://www.emhandbooks.wisconsin.gov/meh-ebd/meh.htm>. MA deductibles are calculated for six-month periods. To calculate the deductible, the "medically needy" income amount is subtracted from the household's income (less a $20 unearned income disregard), and the remainder is multiplied by six.

A deductible was correctly calculated for the petitioner's case. That deductible has now been met, so there is no issue for resolution by the Administrative Law Judge at this time.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The petitioner currently has an open MA case, so there is no issue for resolution by the Administrative Law Judge at this time.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That the petition is dismissed.
