FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of NA.
2. Petitioner was sent a series of notices, all dated November 29, 2011, that informed her that she had been overissued FoodShare benefits in the total amount $9853.00. She timely appealed to the Division of Hearings and Appeals and a hearing was conducted on April 3, 2012. The decision from that hearing was issued on May 17, 2012 and concluded that Petitioner had been overissued FoodShare in the amount of $9793.00. The sum has been further paid down to $9350.00.

3. A State of Wisconsin tax intercept notice, dated December 13, 2013, was sent to Petitioner notifying her that she had an unpaid debt outstanding in the amount of $9350.00 and that her tax refunds could be subject to intercept to repay the debt. Petitioner timely appealed.

DISCUSSION

This decision begins with a description of the regulatory framework under which the agency seeks to recover this FoodShare overissuance.

The State is required to recover all FoodShare overpayments. An overpayment occurs when a FoodShare household receives more FoodShare than it is entitled to receive. 7 C.F.R. §273.18(a). The Federal FoodShare regulations provide that the agency shall establish a claim against a FoodShare household that was overpaid, even if the overpayment was caused by agency error. 7 C.F.R. §273.18(a)(2).

Once an overpayment is established, Wis. Stat. § 49.85 provides that the department shall, at least annually, certify to the Department of Revenue the amounts that it has determined that it may recover resulting from overpayment of general relief benefits, overissuance of food stamps, overpayment of AFDC and Medical Assistance payments made incorrectly.

The Department must notify the person that it intends to certify the overpayment to the Department of Revenue for setoff from his/her state income tax refund and must inform the person that he/she may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing. Id. at § 49.85(3).

The hearing right is described in Wis. Stat. § 49.85(4)(b) but is limited:

If a person has requested a hearing under this subsection, the department ... shall hold a contested case hearing under s. 227.44, except that the department ... may limit the scope of the hearing to exclude issues that were presented at a prior hearing or that could have been presented at a prior opportunity for hearing. (Emphasis added).

Here none of this is in dispute; rather, Petitioner has lost employment and unemployment compensation benefits and is unable to repay the amount due at this time. She would, therefore, like the State to desist collection efforts at this time. The Division of Hearings and Appeals does not, however, possess equitable powers. See, e.g., Wisconsin Socialist Workers 1976 Campaign Committee v. McCann, 433 F. Supp. 540, 545 (E.D. Wis.1977). The Division of Hearings and Appeals must limit its review to the law as set forth in statutes, federal regulations, and administrative code provisions. Accordingly, the Division of Hearings and Appeals does not have authority under law to perform the “equity” requested.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

That the FoodShare program is required by law to report Petitioner’s unpaid FoodShare overissuance to the Department of Revenue for recovery.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That this matter is dismissed.
