ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE:

David D. Fleming
Division of Hearings and Appeals

Petitioner requested this hearing to contest a modified approval of a prior authorization for personal care services. After receipt and review of a January 16, 2014 letter from the Department as to its rationale for the modification and as the hearing developed Petitioner indicated that she understood the Department position and agreed with it. She verbally withdrew this appeal. Her preparation for the hearing and candor is much appreciated. If circumstances change she understood that she may have her provider file a new prior authorization request. Nonetheless, as things are now there is no issue for determination by the Division of Hearings and Appeals.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

That there is no issue for resolution by the Division of Hearings and Appeals at this time.

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED

That this appeal is dismissed.

You may also ask for a rehearing if you have found new evidence which would change the decision. Your request must explain what mistake the Administrative Law Judge made and why it is important or you must describe your new evidence and tell why you did not have it at your first hearing. If you do not explain these things, your request will have to be denied.

To ask for a rehearing, send a written request to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, P.O. Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875. Send a copy of your request to the other people named in this decision as "PARTIES IN INTEREST." Your request for a rehearing must be received no later than 20 days after the date of the decision. Late requests cannot be granted.

The process for asking for a rehearing is in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. A copy of the statutes can be found at your local library or courthouse.

APPEAL TO COURT

You may also appeal this decision to Circuit Court in the county where you live. Appeals must be served and filed with the appropriate court no more than 30 days after the date of this hearing decision (or 30 days after a denial of rehearing, if you ask for one).

For purposes of appeal to circuit court, the Respondent in this matter is the Department of Health Services. After filing the appeal with the appropriate court, it must be served on the Secretary of that Department, either personally or by certified mail. The address of the Department is: 1 West Wilson Street, Room 651, Madison, Wisconsin 53703.
