DISCUSSION

The Disability Determination Bureau (DDB) forwarded Petitioner's file to the Division of Hearings and Appeals to review the DDB's decision denying Petitioner's application for disability-based Medicaid benefits. At the hearing, the Petitioner indicated that he now has health insurance through the Badger Care program and has received his Forward Health card. The Petitioner further indicated that he is waiting for a decision from the Social Security Administration concerning Social Security Disability Income, and would like to continue with the Badger Care benefits until he hears back from the Social Security Administration. Consequently, there was no need for the hearing concerning the denial of Medicaid benefits. If I have misunderstood the situation, the Petitioner is directed to the rehearing instructions below.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

There is no longer any issue concerning Petitioner's Medicaid application for the Division of Hearings and Appeals to resolve at this time.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That the petition is dismissed.

REQUEST FOR A REHEARING

This is a final administrative decision. If you think this decision is based on a serious mistake in the facts or the law, you may request a rehearing. You may also ask for a rehearing if you have found new evidence which would change the decision. Your request must explain what mistake the Administrative Law Judge made and why it is important or you must describe your new evidence and tell why you did not have it at your first hearing. If you do not explain these things, your request will have to be denied.

To ask for a rehearing, send a written request to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, P.O. Box 7875, Madison, WI 53707-7875. Send a copy of your request to the other people named in this decision as "PARTIES IN INTEREST." Your request for a rehearing must be received no later than 20 days after the date of the decision. Late requests cannot be granted.

The process for asking for a rehearing is in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. A copy of the statutes can be found at your local library or courthouse.

APPEAL TO COURT

You may also appeal this decision to Circuit Court in the county where you live. Appeals must be served and filed with the appropriate court no more than 30 days after the date of this hearing decision (or 30 days after a denial of rehearing, if you ask for one).

For purposes of appeal to circuit court, the Respondent in this matter is the Department of Health Services. After filing the appeal with the appropriate court, it must be served on the Secretary of that Department, either personally or by certified mail. The address of the Department is: 1 West Wilson Street, Room 651, Madison, Wisconsin 53703. A copy should also be sent to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, 5005 University Avenue, Suite 201, Madison, WI 53705-5400.

The appeal must also be served on the other "PARTIES IN INTEREST" named in this decision. The process for appeals to the Circuit Court is in Wis. Stat. §§ 227.52 and 227.53.
