FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # ) is a resident of Milwaukee County, who was an ongoing FS recipient since at least 2010. The petitioner lives with her boyfriend, JY, the father of her child.

2. Petitioner submitted an online Six Month Report Form (SMRF) on December 3, 2010, identifying her address on [REDACTED] Avenue in Milwaukee, and indicating that only she and her daughter resided at that address. The same address and household information was submitted on SMRF's/renewals completed October, 2011, April, 2012, October 2012, and April, 2013.
3. On July 16, 2011, JY submitted a FS application claiming the same address as petitioner's address, and reporting only himself in the household. The same address and household information was submitted on SMRF's/renewals/applications completed December, 2011, June, 2012, and January, 2013.
4. JY reported residing at the [REDACTED] Avenue residence to Child Support, according to the online KIDS website.
5. Wisconsin Circuit Court Access website indicates that both petitioner and JY have reported the [REDACTED] Avenue residence.
6. The county agency notified the petitioner on June 4, 2014, that it was ending her FoodShare due to household income exceeding program limits.

DISCUSSION

A FoodShare household consists of one or more persons who live in the same household and purchase and prepare food together for home consumption. 7 CFR § 273.1(a)(3); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook § 3.3.1. Anyone under 22 years old who lives "with his or her natural or adoptive parent(s) or step-parent(s)" is considered part of that household whether or not the entire household eats and prepares food together. 7 CFR §273.1(b)(1)(ii). Because a parent who lives with a child is part of that child's household, if both parents live with a child they have in common, they are considered part of the same FoodShare household as each other.

FoodShare recipients must verify current household information, including income, in the last month of the certification period to continue receiving benefits. 7 CFR § 273.14(a)(4) and 7 CFR § 273.2(f)(8)(i)(A). Agencies must deny benefits to those who fail to verify information within 10 days of when the information was requested. FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, § 1.2.1.2. The county agency ended the petitioner's FoodShare benefits because it added JY to her household, and the addition of his income to the household resulted in income exceeding program limits. Petitioner contends that JY does not live with her.

I find the petitioner's contention implausible. JY testified at hearing that the respondent's findings regarding his use of the [REDACTED] Avenue address were correct. He argued, however, that while he used the address, prior to Christmas, 2013, he did not live there more than 8-10 days per month. Notably, he did not identify any other fixed address where he pays any rent or mortgage and instead supposedly stayed with friends. This is not to say that he spent every night with the petitioner. I have no trouble believing that they had differences that lead to their spending some nights apart. But it has not been established that JY spent most of his nights elsewhere.

Looking at all the evidence and the reasonable inferences drawn from that evidence, the Department has proven that the petitioner and JY live together. Therefore, it properly included his income in petitioner's household budget, and ended the petitioner's FoodShare benefits when it found that her household income exceeded FS program limits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The petitioner’s boyfriend lives with her.
2. The county agency correctly ended the petitioner’s FoodShare benefits when it found that her household income exceeded FS program limits.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That the petitioner's appeal is dismissed.
