The issue for determination is whether this appeal is timely.

There appeared at that time and place the following persons:

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. Petitioner (CARES # [Redacted]) is a resident of Sauk County.
2. By a three separate notices dated 6/5/14, petitioner's W-2 agency informed her that she was overpaid a total of $1,565 in W-2 payments between November 2013 and January 2014. Petitioner received the notice. Petitioner did not seek the fact-finding review as provided in those notices.

3. Petitioner did not pay the money back.
4. Petitioner was sent a tax intercept notice on 11/14/14 which provided for a 30-day deadline for the filing of a request for hearing.
5. There is no record that petitioner responded to any of the notices. She did not file an appeal with the Division of Hearings and Appeals until she filed this appeal on December 30, 2014.

DISCUSSION

Wis. Stat., §49.85(2)(b), provides that the department shall, at least annually, certify to the Department of Revenue the amounts that it has determined that it may recover resulting from W-2 and child care assistance overpayments.

The Department of Children and Families must notify the person that it intends to certify the overpayment to the Department of Revenue for setoff from his/her state income tax refund and must inform the person that he/she may appeal the decision by requesting a hearing. Id. at §49.85(3)(b).

The hearing right is described in Wis. Stat., §49.85(4)(b), as follows:

If a person has requested a hearing under this subsection, the department ... shall hold a contested case hearing under s. 227.44, except that the department ... may limit the scope of the hearing to exclude issues that were presented at a prior hearing or that could have been presented at a prior opportunity for hearing.

The Department is required to recover all overpayments of public assistance benefits. Requests for fact finding reviews of actions to recover W-2 benefits must be filed within 45 days of the action. Wis. Admin. Code, §DCF 101.22(1). Appeals of tax intercept notices must be filed within 30 days of the notice. Wis. Stat. §49.85(3)(a)2.

Petitioner seeks to have the original overpayment reversed in this appeal. She testified that she does not believe she received the W-2 payments at issue. The problem is that her appeal is untimely. She did not request a fact finding review of the original overpayment notice, and she did not appeal the tax intercept notice within 30 days. It is too late now to address the merits of the original overpayment claim. And the appeal of the tax intercept is also untimely.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Petitioner's appeal of the PACU's tax intercept was untimely.

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED

That the petition for review herein be and the same is hereby dismissed.
