FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # ) is a resident of NA.
2. The agency issued MA overpayment notices to petitioner on 9/14/15 for claims totaling $876.72.
3. Petitioner filed a request for hearing with DHA on January 27, 2016.

DISCUSSION

An administrative law judge can only hear cases on the merits if there is jurisdiction to do so. There is no jurisdiction if a hearing request is untimely. An appeal of a negative action by a county agency concerning Medical Assistance (MA) must be filed within 45 days of the date of the action. Sections 49.45(5) and 49.50(8), Wis. Stats.; Income Maintenance Manual, II-G-3.4.0. A negative action can be the denial of an application, reduction, incorrect effective date of eligibility for benefits, the incorrect calculation of benefits or payments, termination of an ongoing case, or an overpayment notice. The petitioner's appeal was filed 134 days after the effective date of the action.

Petitioner explained that the address to which the notices were sent was a correct address she occupied prior to July 2015. Petitioner explained that due to her move and change of address placed with the post office her mail was delivered to her in December 2015. Petitioner then explained that she took the remainder of the time to try to figure out the overpayment or how to resolve it.

First, I find it difficult to believe that it took the post office 3 months from the mailing date to deliver the forwarded mail. I find the explanation of December delivery to be unbelievable. Furthermore, even if delivered in December, the petitioner could still have attempted file sooner. Even if late, such a request filed at that time may have made her claim of late delivery more credible. But, petitioner still elected to delay her filing until the end of January 2016 despite the notices clearly stating the need for a timely hearing request.

Thus, the hearing request was untimely, and no jurisdiction exists for considering the merits of the case. There is no relevant exception under law, and I possess no authority to reach the underlying merits of the MA overpayment determinations of September 14, 2015.
