Subject: Access to Public Records

I am very upset and opposed to the Public Records Board's efforts to limit public records access by citizens of Wisconsin. Since the state's inception, we have prided ourselves in our open, honest government that stood out regardless of what was going on in other states. and There is absolutely no justifiable argument for curtailing our right to know what our elected legislators are doing in conducting the business of the state. Openness and returning this state to greatness was promised by the Walker administration. Ever since, we have been getting the opposite.

Citizens still pay your salaries to act in our best interest. So here is one taxpaying citizen saying leave the checks and balances in place so we can verify that you still are. There will be consequences at the ballot box if not.
