Subject: Citizen access to public records

Board Members:

Obviously there should be no limit to access to text messages, emails, Facebook posts and other electronic communications by public employees. It's called democracy. Something Republican lawmakers do not seem to be acquainted with. Open up all records to public scrutiny and let the sun shine in. Surely you have nothing to hide?

I am writing to lobby for complete transparency in government. If all elected officials are working for the good of the electorate there should be no reason to hide any of what they are doing.
