

Bob Storm

From: Bob Storm <RStorm@sbm-law.com>
Sent: Wednesday, January 6, 2016 7:48 AM
To: DOA Public Records Board Comments
Subject: Electronic records access

I strongly object to any efforts to limit public access to public records of legislators and other governmental officials, regardless of whether those limitations apply to electronic or more traditional forms of communication.

The public has a right to know what the government actors are doing and how they are doing it.

How can we be informed as an electorate, if we are limited in our access to the information we need to evaluate what is going on?

Robert H. Storm