

EEP

From: EEP <ed@proctorandco.com>
Sent: Wednesday, January 6, 2016 6:08 AM
To: DOA Public Records Board Comments
Subject: Electronic records need to be open to public access

We hire the elected government to do the people's business. Whether they like it or not the process of doing the people's business should be open to public scrutiny. ALL written materials must be available or there is the hint of crime. The efforts to close some or all of their actions is a very strong suggestion that they are not doing good for the people but only good for themselves.