Subject: Electronic records.

To all in charge of upcoming legislation to change electronic records:

STOP undermining and eroding my/our democratic government.
Do not vote to change public open records access laws and now the corrupting of electronic records.
You all need to rescind action to limit access to text messages, emails and other communications that have traditionally been kept and are/were accessible to the public.
There is no need to change these rules. Doing so limits the democratic process and opens the door for corruption.

STOP undermining and eroding my access to democratic government.

Sincerely,
Nancy Kalmerton
