As a constituent who less than two years ago moved to Wisconsin, I cannot begin to tell you how horrifying it has been to watch how the state government strips away its constituents' rights. Never before have I seen such neglect and disrespect for a group of citizens and residents as I have witnessed from Wisconsin's current Republican-led administration.

You have lied and hope that we would not pay attention. Now, do the right thing. And when you do the right thing and do what is truly in the interest of the state you are supposed to be serving, you will not have to hide behind new laws you create to hide your lies.

Electronic records are records and all records should be kept and remain open to public and to review by current and future citizens and government servants.

Let our records be open - do not take away or diminish our open records law.

Make yourselves honorable, please.

Thank you,
Andrea Burkholder
