Subject: Keep our public government records open to the people!

To Whom It May Concern,

Democracy is predicated upon open discourse between the governing bodies and the people that those bodies SERVE. It is vitally important to allow the citizens of our great state of Wisconsin to be knowledgeable of the workings of those governing bodies. Attempts to hide, destroy, or muddy those conversations is reminiscent of darker times in our history and the history of other governing bodies.

Wisconsin must stop these attempts to shamefully erase the deliberations of our elected officials and return to a time of open and transparent government.
