Subject: Leave Wisconsin's open records law alone!

To whom it may concern:

I read the newspaper articles with alarm and listen with consternation about the current legislature's attempt to amend the open records law.

Please do not! Amending this right of the citizens of Wisconsin to public access is unacceptable.

There is no benefit to nor public good in limiting access to text messages, emails, Facebook posts, and other electronic communications between our elected, public officials. Citizens have an interest in and right to these communications and a right to see them.

Thank you very much.
