Subject: Open Government

Dear Madam or Sir,

Wisconsin has been known for years as having transparent, open and honest government.

Since 2010 when the Republicans were elected, the Governor and legislators have been following ALEC based legislation to take away unions, bargaining rights and safety nets for the poor, disabled and elderly.

Since at least last July, under cover of night, a holiday weekend the Joint Finance Committee secretly gutted Wisconsin's Open Records Laws.

The only reason for this new law is to limit public access and to hide information from the public. If someone wants information hidden, there is a good chance that is exactly the information the public should know about.

If the Governor and the Legislators continue their sneaky ways, I would hope the voters will finally understand their votes count and the destruction of Wisconsin will stop.

Sincerely,
Martha Pincus
