Public Records Board:

Please restore the Open Public Records Law to its former comprehensive unrestricted form.

I strongly believe that ALL forms of communication by public employees should be available under Wisconsin's Open Records Law. This includes communication via electronic media (email, text messages, Facebook, etc.) as well as written/hard copy and telephone communications.

Wisconsin should have completely open public records, available for access and review. If elected officials are truly open and above board in their official activities/duties and make decisions in the best interest of Wisconsin residents, they shouldn't object to access to all their communications available through an unrestricted open public records law.

Do the right thing and keep the Open Records Law open and available to the people of Wisconsin!
