Dear Board Members,

I strongly oppose the change in our open records laws that would exclude “transitory” records. This is merely a way to hide correspondence on matters from the public.

Wisconsin has a proud heritage of open government. It is truly disappointing to see the way you have attempted to hide information from public scrutiny through the attempts to change the law, both last summer and in the current proposal.

This is an election year. I hope you realize that this kind of attempt to mask government dealings will have negative consequences for those proposing this in the coming elections!

Sincerely,

Sandra L. Shaw
