Open records laws should mean what it says: open. Public records should mean just that: public. Transparent government does NOT mean hiding behind the vaguely interpreted word "transitory". Did you and or your other committee members only have face-to-face meetings with the governor and his "people" so no records could be created concerning this latest attempt to thwart what is left of WI open records laws? When will those conversations/emails/texts/letters/memos/smoke signals be made public?

All involved should be ashamed of this attack to shut the door on the publics' right to know. In the light of day, everyone proclaims they want to respect the publics' right to know; behind closed doors, it is all a big secret.

I object to your recent actions to help the governor slime his way out of his responsibilities to disclose to the citizens of WI what is occurring under his watch!

Respectfully submitted,
