Subject: Public access to records

I am writing to express my objection to the limits on access to public records enacted last summer by the Public Records Board. A free and democratic society depends on openness at all levels of government; therefore, it is vital that text messages, emails, Facebook posts and other electronic communications by public employees be part of the public record and accessible to the citizens and voters of Wisconsin. The free flow of information about the process of government is essential to the integrity and well-being of our society. Please restore the openness which we all deserve. Thank you, Judith M.
