Subject: Transparency of Information

No ONE in any branch of Wisconsin's government, voted into office by the public, has the right to deny ANY information used in their daily work for that public, from being seen by that public. If it involves the public's cause, it is open to that public. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Wake up government officials, it's NOT your government. We are only letting you direct it in the direction we want it to go. Don't abuse your power or out you go after the next election.
