The state of Wisconsin has become nothing but a dictatorship under the State Supreme Court and the legislature/governorship. What could possibly go awry by eliminating the electronic trail? More of the same: a government of the majority covering up evidence of campaign criminality, outstate money electing our officials, judges advocating destruction of evidence, a DNR advocating destruction of archaeological treasures, money buying special privileges on public land. Pitiful government. What a pathetic downfall for a state I used to admire for its clean government.
