Subject: Written Comment About Public Records Access

Dear Public Records Board,

OPEN RECORDS mean OPEN RECORDS. Please consider this email additional support for rescinding Board action to limit access to text messages, emails, Facebook posts and other electronic communications by public employees. Such modes of communication are in fact used predominantly in today's society for work correspondence and should be taken as permanent records of such, publicly accessible, and NOT transitory. And violations of WI open meetings laws are clear in this case. DO NOT let such violations happen again. Your constituency is watching.

Sincerely,
Ms. Amanda J. Jungkuntz
