As a resident of the State of Wisconsin for sixty-six years, I can express my dissatisfaction with what is going on here.

Currently what is going on with the state's open records law. Too much is going on behind closed doors. The public needs to know how all issues are being handled.

I have been voting in almost all the elections in this state. With elections coming up this year, you can bet on me not voting for anyone who wants to gut the open records law. Enough is enough!

Our present administration from Governor Walker on down is appalling. Wise up people. This state is doing so little for its citizens and now this

Sincerely (a disgusted citizen),

Carol Potrykus
