I believe it isnt right to hide important public documents from the public. Who determines what is important and what is not? Do i need to have someone or a board of someones to do my thinking for me? Am i not intelligent enough to form my own opinions on what is communicated in any form? If something is being done in my best interests dont i have the right to know how those decisions were made? Dont you trust me to be able to separate fact from fiction ? I trust you. Is there something that needs to be hidden from the public? I have always believed in the saying " mean what you say and say what you mean", too many times people in public office dont follow this and i believe that government should be accountable for their actions and transparent in who, what,why,how,etc. Let Wisconsin take the high road and show the rest of the world how its done and that we dont have anything to hide!!!
