

Christine Lemanczyk

---

From: Christine Lemanczyk <chrisleman@sbcglobal.net>
Sent: Wednesday, January 6, 2016 9:00 AM
To: DOA Public Records Board Comments
Subject: public records

Trying to limit the access to public records is completely unacceptable. It is truly amazing what the current government is trying to do to keep themselves in power and deny the citizens access to what should remain as an open government. The secretive action to gut the open records law that was tried this last summer, and the ongoing attempt to keep records away from the press and the public will have repercussions at the voting booth.