Dear Members of the Public Records Board,

Your actions limiting public access to public records are deeply concerning. The tax payers of Wisconsin, who fund the positions of public officials, should have access to every single communication made by them regardless of medium. Citizens have received "the wakeup call", and will show up on Election Day to vote for candidates representing open government not those who are trying to manipulate state politics.

Thank you for your time and for soliciting my opinion on this important matter.

Sincerely, Tracey Kalin
